

I am very happy to have XM in my car. I am paying for a service because I love it! It was my choice to do so and I am happy with this choice! To me XM is like any cable network only better since there are no commercials! Try to tell people that they can no longer have traffic report or weather forecast on cable TV?! No one should fight this, other stations should compete not try to regulate the competition out of existence!